CEO Mikael Nylund comments on January–June 2020

In the first half of 2020, we achieved continued growth despite the uncertainty caused by the coronavirus pandemic that erupted in the early spring. Our net sales grew by 11.7% from the corresponding period in 2019 to EUR 37.4 million. The growth was largely organic, indicating the customer needs, but also showing the successes of our sales and recruitment. We also reported continued growth in the number of personnel, which reached a new 600 milestone. Thus, we have continued on our path of profitable growth for more than 15 consecutive financial years.

Profitability remained at a good level during the review period. Excluding the non-recurring expenses and related provisions, adjusted EBITA was EUR 5.8 million, corresponding to 15.5 % of net sales. In recent years, our profitability has been at the same level during the first half of the year.

International operations accounted for 10.9% or EUR 4.1 million of the Group's net sales during the review period, compared to 10.7% or EUR 3.6 million the previous year. At the beginning of the year, we divested our loss-making UK subsidiary. The decision to close the business was difficult for a growth company whose operations are based on a culture of doing things together. We believe we have made the right decision and learned from this for our future internationalization efforts. In line with our strategy, we want to be a truly international company with significant international customers. Our operations in Germany, Italy, Spain and Estonia support this approach and we succeeded in growing also internationally despite the divestment of the UK subsidiary.

During the review period, we won significant public procurement tenders. These emphasize two things: the importance of advisory services alongside software development in accelerating the digitalization of society, and the importance of cooperation and working within networking in our business. Among other things, we will continue as a development partner of the Finnish National Agency for Education Study Info (Opintopolku) service entity, and in the future we will be responsible for developing the Finnish Business Information System (YTJ) of the Finnish Patent and Registration Office. We develop YTJ together with our subcontractor partner Cybercom.

During the review period, we strengthened the Group's Executive Management Team to support our growth. Elja Kirjavainen, CEO of our subsidiary Silver Planet Oy, joined the Executive Management Team and is responsible for managing the business focused on digital change advisory services at the Group level. We have already achieved synergies associated with the acquisition of Silver Planet, with the intention of integrating Silver Planet's advisory services closely into Gofore's service offering in the second half of the year. With almost 200 consultants, we are one of the biggest digital change advisory consultancies in Finland. Additionally, during the review period, Teppo Talvinko joined the Executive Management Team as our new CFO. Teppo joined us from Nurminen Logistics Plc and replaces Petteri Venola, our long-serving CFO.

During the review period, we made significant progress in line with our sustainability program launched in 2019. In the efforts we take within corporate responsibility, impact arises from the handprint in customer work. During the beginning of 2020, we have, e.g. been developing a solution that will reduce the nutrient load in the Archipelago Sea and have provided partnership for Finland's largest cities in developing the digital system for early childhood education and schools. Sustainable development has gained more and more weight in our service offering. The backdrop to this is the global development currently putting ecological and social reconstruction at the heart of the work of many organizations.

The spring showed us that we are trusted and organizations want to invest in their future. Gofore's customers continued our joint projects even during the exceptional times, and we were able to rapidly adapt new remote ways of working. I would like to thank both our customers and employees for their flexibility and perseverance in these difficult times.

Despite the coronavirus burst in the spring, we believe that digitalization will continue to accelerate. I assume that the pandemic has shaped the minds of many in that many prefer to use digital services primarily and so the use of more traditional services is declining in popularity. Technological developments are constantly bringing opportunities for new service experiences and disruptions are changing the operating environments of organizations. We strongly believe that digital services and infrastructure play a key role, especially in ensuring the security of society, and that there is a constant demand for the top expertise we offer.

Now more than ever before, I feel we are really needed.

After the review period, in August 2020, we announced the agreement to acquire Qentinel Finland Oy, a specialist in software testing automation; the company employs about 100 people. As a result of the acquisition, Gofore will become one of the most important providers of professional services in digital quality assurance in Finland. The digital quality assurance and testing automation services of Qentinel Finland will complement our professional services offering. Going forward Gofore serves its customer with a wider range of services needed in digital transformation.

Given the net sales impact of this acquisition, the development of the company's net sales in the first half of the year and the outlook for the second half we have adjusted our financial guidance. We estimate that the full-year 2020 net sales will be in the range of EUR 70–76 million. Adjusted EBITA is expected to grow in 2020 from 2019.

Financial review 1 January–30 June 2020

Net sales in January-June

January–June 2020 net sales grew by 11.7% compared to previous year and were EUR 37.4 million. The growth was mainly organic. International operations accounted for 10.9% of the Group's net sales, amounting to EUR 4.1 million (EUR 3.6 million). Net sales generated from the public sector customers accounted for 73.5%, amounting to EUR 27.5 million (EUR 22.9 million) of the Group's net sales. The private sector accounted for 26.5%, amounting to EUR 9.9 million (EUR 10.5 million) of the Group's net sales. Subcontracting contributed for 16.8% of the Group's net sales, amounting to EUR 6.3 million (EUR 5.4 million).

Net sales development during January–June 2020:

Month (2020)	Net sales, MEUR (net sales 2019) ¹	Number of employees ²	Number of working days in Finland	Overall capacity, FTE ³	Subcontracting FTE ⁴

March	6.8 (6.1)	585	22	549	73
April	6.4 (5.5)	596	20	559	80

Market outlook and operating environment

The coronavirus pandemic has affected the market outlook and operating environment of IT services. The company estimates that the pandemic will continue to have a major impact on the industry in the second half of 2020.

In Finland, Gofore's main market (Jan–June 2020: 89% of net sales), concerns over the second wave of the coronavirus pandemic and its effects on the economy have increased uncertainty.

In the public sector client segment, which is important to Gofore, there has been little immediate impact so far. At the governmental level, customers have tried to keep their development projects going. Shifting to remote working has affected their ability to carry on with the development work, but less than expected. Municipalities and local authorities have been affected to a higher extent, but particularly larger clients have managed to continue with major projects. The company estimates that for the public sector the situation will continue the same during the second half of the year and that the pandemic's impact on demand will vary. In the long term, demand will be affected by the state of public finances and political decisions made on investments into digitalization.

In the private sector, the pandemic has had a bigger immediate impact, which has manifested as delays in development work and cancellations of projects. The disruption to our clients' own business has also affected the price of our services. Return to former demand levels will depend on how quickly the economy and exports will recover in the client segments important to Gofore.

In the long term, the company expects the pandemic to accelerate digitalization. The challenges organizations are facing in remote working and the changes in end customer behaviour brought about by the pandemic have shown that digital solutions will replace traditional ways of working more widely. The customers' willingness to invest in digital transformation is, however, dependent on the development of the economy in both the public and the private sectors.

Outside Finland, Gofore's clients are primarily in the private sector. The pandemic has had an impact on these customers, but in the long term, we estimate the demand for our services will grow due to their large market potential.

The labour market is important to Gofore, and there the change brought on by the coronavirus pandemic will have a positive effect on the company in the short term. The sudden change in demand in our industry has improved the possibilities of recruiting skilled employees. The company expect this to continue during the second half of the year.

The IT market continues to move towards investments in technology that support digital business in the longer-term despite the corona crisis. This means investments in digital services, data management and utilization, and cloud infrastructure. Customers want their investments to bring results quickly and make operating models more flexible. Agile digitalization consults like us, specializing in the newest technology, will be able to meet this demand better than larger and more traditional IT consultancies.

The second Crew Share savings program from 1 March 2019 to 29 February 2020 carries 161 employees entitled to 15,852 matching shares at the end of reporting period.

On 12 February 2020, the Board of Directors decided on a third savings period to be launched under the share savings program for 2020–2021. The total amount of savings for the 2020–2021 savings period may not exceed EUR 1 million. On 30 June 2020, 178 Group employees have participated in the third share savings program.

Significant events after the review period

July 2020 net sales were EUR 2.4 million (EUR 2.2 million). The number of employees at the end of the review period was 609. There were 23 working days during the period in Finland. The Overall capacity, FTE was 569, and the subcontracting FTE was 33.

Month (2020)	Net sales, MEUR (net sales 2019) ¹	Number of employees ²	Number of working days in Finland	Overall capacity, FTE ³	Subcontracting FTE ⁴
July	2.4 (2.2)	609	23	569	33

As announced on 10 August 2020 Gofore has agreed to acquire Qentinel Finland Oy, a specialist in software testing automation. The debt-free purchase price is EUR 8.9 million and it will be paid in cash. An additional purchase price has been agreed based on the EBITDA as stated in the current year's financial results. Gofore expects the additional purchase price to total EUR 1–2 million. Also included in the purchase price is a compensation for net cash on the execution date. Gofore estimates that the acquisition's net sales impact on the group's financial statements will be approximately EUR 4 million in 2020. The deal is estimated to be completed on 1 September 2020. Qentinel Finland Oy will continue to operate as an independent company, reported as part of the Gofore Group as of 1 September 2020.

Ville Tuominen, Director, International Business, will step down on 31 August 2020 from his position and as a member of the Executive Management Team.

Short-term risks and uncertainties

The coronavirus pandemic has brought uncertainty to the company's operating environment.

Like other organizations, Gofore has had to adapt its practices to mitigate the effects of the coronavirus on the company's business. Gofore has been able to adapt quickly to the exceptional circumstances. If the crisis is protracted, the company will need to re-evaluate its practices. To prepare for this, the company has started a development project, which is described in more detail in the section "Research and Development".

The pandemic affects Gofore's customer base and hence the company's business. It is possible that the declining financial situation may reduce the development investments of some of our customers. A possible decrease in demand may also have an adverse effect on the development of customer prices. Additionally, possible project discontinuities may cause risks that slow down the growth and development of the company.

The company reports and comments on the development of its business in its monthly Business Reviews. This also means monthly monitoring of the possible realization of risks.

Long-term financial goals

Gofore is pursuing net sales growth exceeding the growth of the target market and an operating profit before goodwill amortization (EBITA) margin of 15%. The company estimates that the target market will continue to exceed economic and ICT service sector growth in the next few years, but the growth will not exceed 10%.

Financial reporting in 2020

Gofore publishes monthly Business Reviews. Reporting covers the month's net sales, the net sales of the corresponding month in the previous year as well as the number of employees. Reporting has been supplemented with the Full Time Equivalent (FTE) figure as well as subcontracting FTE. These additions further facilitate transparency at the monthly level of the company's growth strategy as well as the transparency of the company's business. Additionally, in the monthly Business Reviews for the quarters ending in March and September, the company publishes the Group's EBITA and EBITA-% as well as corresponding figures for the same period in the previous year. The Business Review for September will be published on 13 October 2020.

The financial reporting schedule for 2021 will be published at the end of 2020.
